

Dear Parents,

Thank you for your interest in participating in a baby dedication service.

Because the commitments made during a child dedication are so important and require a general theological understanding of salvation, the church, and the role of parents, church membership is a prerequisite to dedicating a child. This includes, but is not limited to:

- At least one parent being “Born Again,” through their confession of faith and baptized in water as a public symbol of that confession
- The family regularly gathering with other believers for worship and communion
- Willing submission to the pastoral oversight of the Elders

If you are not yet a member and would like to join the church, please contact me immediately so I can enroll you in the next membership class. Upon your completion of these foundational steps, we will be glad to assist you in making your child’s dedication arrangements.

If you have already met these requirements, please read the enclosed information about the requirements for baby dedication at James Island Christian Church. If you agree with and understand the scriptural expectation of raising children dedicated “unto the Lord,” and your responsibility towards that calling, please fill out the application form and return it to the church office by faxing it or dropping off on Sunday at the Guest Services Desk. A brief counseling session will then be scheduled with you and one of the pastors or leaders.

Baby dedications are performed during our worship service on Sunday at 10:30 a.m. Once you have completed your counseling session, please contact me at the office to review dates that may be available for this special day.

We look forward to hearing from you and pray that God will give you the wisdom, grace, and love needed to raise your child as you grow in your knowledge of Him.

If you have additional questions after reading through this information, please contact me at 795-9449, x103 or karen@jicc.us.

In Christ,

Why a Baby Dedication?

At JICC, we believe that baptism is something done only after a person makes a conscious choice to accept Jesus Christ as their Savior. However, we recognize the importance of making a commitment to raise your child in a Christian manner. A Baby Dedication is a ceremony in which believing parents, and sometimes entire families, make a commitment before the Lord to submit a child to God's will and to raise that child according to God's Word and God's ways.

Who can dedicate a baby?

We believe that parents are given the responsibility for raising and nurturing a child throughout their life. Parents will answer to God for how they have impacted the life of their child. Because this authority and responsibility lies with the parents, only parents or legal guardians of a child may dedicate a child to the Lord.

Children are a gift from God.

Psalm 127:3 - Yes, sons are a gift from the Lord, the fruit of the womb is a reward.

Responsibilities Involved in Baby Dedication

Christian parents who dedicate a child are making a promise to the Lord to do everything within their power to raise the child in a Godly way, prayerfully until he or she can make a decision on his or her own to follow Christ. Parents who make this vow of commitment are instructed to raise the child in the ways of God and not according to their own ways. Some of the responsibilities include teaching and training the child in God's Word, demonstrating an example of Godliness, disciplining according to God's ways, and praying earnestly for the child.

Proverbs 22:6 - Train a child in the way that he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it.

Deuteronomy 6:4-7 - "Hear O Israel: The Lord our God is one. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength. These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up."

Ephesians 6:4 - "Fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath; instead, bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord."

The best thing Moms and Dads can teach their child is the "Fear of the Lord," for Proverbs 1:7 tells us this is "the beginning of knowledge." In other words, the successful application of all that your child learns in life depends on him first learning to fear and follow God.

Examples of Baby Dedication in Scripture

And she (Hannah) made a vow, saying, "O LORD Almighty, if you will only look upon your servant's misery and remember me, and not forget your servant but give her a son, then I will give him to the LORD for all the days of his life, and no razor will ever be used on his head." 1 Samuel 1:11 (NIV)

When God answered Hannah's prayer by giving her a son, she remembered her vow:

"As surely as you live, my lord, I am the woman who stood here beside you praying to the LORD. I prayed for this child, and the LORD has granted me what I asked of him. So now I give him to the LORD. For his whole life he will be given over to the LORD." And she worshiped the LORD there. 1 Samuel 1:26-28 (NIV)

In Luke 2:22, we read that Mary and Joseph brought their baby Jesus to the temple in Jerusalem in order to present him before the Lord.

What Are You Committing To?

By coming forward before God and His people to dedicate your child, you will be asked by the Pastor to take a few minutes to express your commitment in following God's Word as follows:

Proclaim your commitment to:

1. Serve and Honor Jesus Christ with your lives
2. Model His love to your child
3. Raise your child up according to God's Word and way - So that your child may walk in the abundant life that Christ offers, to provide a Christian home of love and peace, to raise your child in truth of our Lord's instruction and discipline, and to encourage your child to one day trust Jesus Christ as his own Savior and Lord
4. Trust God, through your fellowship with believers and loved ones, to receive support, help and accountability to God's ways

The Ceremony: Order of Service

- The family will be asked to come to the front of the church. If you desire, you may have extended family, grandparents, and close friends stand with you.
- The Pastor will introduce the family to the church and briefly explain the purpose and Biblical foundation of dedication.
- The Pastor will ask the father (if he is present), to briefly share why they are dedicating this child and present any scripture or thoughts they feel God has given them for this baby. This should be written out word-for-word ahead of time and read. The length of time should not exceed 3 minutes.
- The Pastor will ask for commitments:

First – from Parents: “Do you commit to...if so, say “we will”.

Response: “We will”.

Second – from Extended Family and Entire Church

Response: “We will”.

- Prayer: the Pastor* will pray over the child.

*If the father or other family member would like to say a prayer, this can be discussed ahead of time with the Pastor.

Expect the Unexpected: Keep in mind that babies are unpredictable. Some may sleep during the dedication, but others might cry, especially while you're holding them! It is moments such as these that make baby dedications so special. The sacred and the mundane collide - but through it, we see a glimpse of God in the life of a child – so do not fear this, but anticipate it.

If you will have toddler-aged children/siblings joining your entourage, you may want to plan ahead and assign someone to be attentive to those children so you can focus on the baby and the Pastor's promptings.

- Certificate will be given to the family and everyone will be asked to return to their seat.

FAQ's

Can I have a photographer or family friend take pictures of the ceremony?

A designated photographer can sit on the front row of the church to get pictures of the actual ceremony. If a flash is being used, we ask that the number of pictures be limited to four. The best opportunity to take a family picture will be before or after the service.

Is my child too old to be dedicated?

Any child at any age can be dedicated to the Lord.

What if I am a single parent?

We welcome single parents to dedicate their children. This would be a time when we would especially encourage grandparents, close friends, or leaders in the church to stand with a single parent and participate in the ceremony. Details about this can be discussed in the counseling session.
